For small business owners there is an indescribable passion that runs through them and keeps them going. Whether this passion comes from the greater good of the community, the customers, or the love of their store. For one small business owner, the passion they have comes from all three. At Picture This, located 322 Main Street,

Keith and Nancy Imholte have that type of deep passion that keeps them ever changing and growing.

At the early stages Picture This, was only a picture-framing store until they decided to add a few more items. Eventually home décor took over most of their inventory. They sell everything from custom picture frames and furniture to quality kitchenware and table decorations. Picture This also offers wedding registration and as a bonus to the couples that register through them they will be able to borrow easels, benches, and plant hangers on their wedding day.

Christmas is a special time at Picture This. The entire store is transformed into a winter wonderland. This year's Christmas Open House is scheduled for November 6-8. Stop in for food, drinks, and store specials. You can shop for the latest home décor and Christmas items ranging from figurines and ornaments to Christmas trees and large sleighs.

Now that fall is right around the corner it is time to check out their fall décor and new furniture items. Picture This will be having a Fall Open House on Friday, August 21 from 9:00 a.m. – 7:00 p.m. and Saturday, August 22 from 9:00 a.m.- 5:00 p.m. To keep updated with Picture This, like them on Facebook to see news and more special events.
